

Hello everyone!

Here's a little something to start off your day:

God: "I have a plan for your life"
What it feels like:

Plans for the next two Sunday services:

This Sunday the service will be Communion in one kind.

The following Sunday (Sept 20th) will hopefully be held outside in celebration of the Season of Creation

COVID Committee

There is a committee for implementation of COVID 19 practices in the church. If you are interested in joining this group, please let Candace know. The committee will be going over the government guidelines for churches as well as the BC Synod guidelines. It would be good to have one or two more people.

Bible Book Study

There is still time to sign up for the Living our Faith - Read: Bible Book Club. Our first month, September, will have us reading the book of Genesis. There will be prepared study questions which we will then discuss as we meet together. Please let Pr Vida know if you are interested in participating. The first group meeting will be held on September 30th at 2:00p.m. at the church.

A prayer as I put on my mask:

Creator, as I prepare to go into the world,
help me to see the sacrament in the wearing of this cloth - let it be an outward sign of an inward “ - a tangible and visible way of living love for my neighbours, as I love myself.

Christ ,since my lips will be covered, uncover my heart, that people would see my smile in the crinkles around my eyes.
Since my voice may be muffled, help me to speak clearly, not only with my words, but with my actions.

Holy Spirit, As the elastic touches my ears, remind me to listen carefully - and full of care - to all those I meet.

May this simple piece of cloth be shield and banner,
and each breath that it holds, be filled with your love.
In your Name and in that love, I pray.
May it be so. May it be so.
